Discover the World in Spain

Description of the Program:

A complete, rounded program that includes coursework, activities, and lodging. Students will be part of an international group of young people (including Spaniards) whose common language will be Spanish which is tested in different situations:

- With Spanish host families: with parents, children, and room-mates
- In class: with experienced teachers who specialize in teaching teenagers and studying material appropriate to their age and level.
- Outside class: participation in carefully planned activities, organized according to student interest and the communication goals stated, well-supervised by their teachers, eg.:
 - Sports and other leisure activities.

- Visits to must-see sights (the Alhambra and other monuments and places of socio-cultural interest)
- Granada's richly varied natural setting: mountains, beach, countryside
- Group soccer games including boys, girls and teachers; salsa classes; the opportunity to meet young people their age; making paella in the school courtyard...

Objectives

To improve students' Spanish communication skills by combining classroom activities geared to young people with extracurricular activities appropriate to their age.
