Spanish Courses
PROGRAM FOR UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

You long to learn We long to teach In Granada, Spain

Program Description

An integrated full immersion program that includes coursework, cultural / social activities and lodging. Programs of study are designed to fulfil the students college syllabus as well as the requirements for credit transfers. In Castila, students become part of an international group whose common language will be Spanish. This is used and tested in different situations:

- With Spanish students, families and collaborators
- In class, with experienced teachers
- Outside the class, in carefully planned activities, organized according to the students interests and the communication goals stated and run by their teachers.

Objectives

To improve students' Spanish communication skills (speaking, listening, reading, and writing) by combining class and homework with extracurricular activities.

Program Summary

- 20 hours per week.
- Maximum of 6 participants per group.
- Available activities every week:
  - 2 / 3 cultural activities per week, run by teachers or a guest : talks, films, concerts, exhibitions, theater, group conversations, visits to the market, the library, to monuments...
  - 2 / 3 leisure activities per week: sports (soccer, volleyball tennis...), walking tours of the city, workshops (ceramic, environment, cooking...), paella (in the countryside, at the school), salsa classes, flamenco classes, lake swimming, party at the school, bike tour,...
- 1 trip to the beach, to the Sierra Nevada, to Sevilla, Cordoba, Baeza, Ubeda, Ronda... organized by school collaborators/staff.
- Optional housing organized by Castila in Spanish families, students residence or shared flats.
- Access to a pool and sports facilities.
- Access to study rooms and a library.
